

I believe in the free enterprise system, and the fact that small business is the basis of our country. We need to be able to choose the provider we want, not a big conglomerate.